

INVITATION TO THE CULMINATING PRESENTATION
of

The World As It Could Be is Within REACH

A Rite-of-Passage to Welcome, Initiate and Celebrate Youth of the REACH Ashland Youth Center as Vital Members of the Community

FRIDAY, MAY 15, 2015 5:30 – 8:30 PM

Reach Ashland Youth Center
16335 E. 14th St., San Leandro, CA 94578

Since September 8, 2014, our first class of participants in The World As It Could Be is Within REACH Rite of Passage have been meeting every Monday, as well as carrying out activities related to their areas of study throughout each month. On Friday, May 15th, the youth will present the culmination of their studies.

Please join us to support the commitment and care of these wonderful people, help celebrate their accomplishments and welcome them as vital members of the community.

The Culminating Presentation Program

5:30	Arrival and seating of attendees
5:45	Welcome and Opening Comments
6:00	Culminating Presentation
6:45	Commendations and Awards
7:00	Reception with food, beverages and music
8:30	Close of Event

RSVP BY FRIDAY, MAY 8TH

Call or email Sandy Sohcot: 415-987-8573 sandy@theworldasitcouldbe.org

Your presence is a critical part of this celebration of our youth.
Thank you for being part of a very special evening.

The World As It Could Be Program, a program of
The Alameda County Deputy Sheriffs' Activities League (DSAL)
16335 E. 14th Street
San Leandro, CA 94578
Fed ID #83-0410537

Sandy Sohcot, Director
Tel: 415-987-8573
info@theworldasitcouldbe.org
www.theworldasitcouldbe.org