Educational materials and a celebratory process to inspire high school-aged youth to deepen their knowledge and understanding of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR). The educational materials incorporate the creative arts as an integral part of the teaching process.
- WHEN & WHERE
- Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday: August 1-3, 9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
 - Balboa High School
 - 1000 Cayuga Ave, San Francisco, CA 94112
- WHY:
- With successful work in Bay Area and Maryland high schools, we present unique curriculum, consistent with Common Core standards, that excites students about learning, being engaged in actions and behaviors that further positive interactions with their peers, teachers and extended communities, and taking action to promote equity, justice and human dignity for all people.
- Teachers focused on academic subjects, including social studies, history and language arts will experience how to integrate creative arts elements – spoken word, visual arts, dance/movement, performing arts, digital arts, and music – into their teaching of the UDHR to help students grasp and apply otherwise abstract concepts, and enthusiastically utilize critical thinking, creative expression and writing skills.
 - Leaders/teachers working with youth to address social justice issues will acquire UDHR content and curriculum that can enhance their programs.
