

INVITATION TO THE WORLD AS IT COULD BE IN SMALL PLACES CLOSE TO HOME

A 1-Day Institute on Utilizing the Universal Declaration of Human Rights for Positive Change

From our last 12 years of program work we have seen that students and adults learning about the UDHR have been inspired by its vision of the world to value each person as a human being, as well as take action toward equality, justice and dignity for all.

Learn about the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), including its history and its connection to our current lives.

Experience a way to use the UDHR to help address current issues of concern with positive action and collaborative communication with others.

Enjoy using creative arts expressions as a way to deepen understanding of what human rights are all about, as well as to communicate about ideas for positive change with other spirited, caring people.
